

A large, black, cursive uppercase letter 'C' is shown on a set of four horizontal lines. The letter starts at the top line, curves down to touch the bottom line, and then curves back up to the top line. A small arrow is attached to the top curve, pointing to the left to indicate the direction of the stroke.

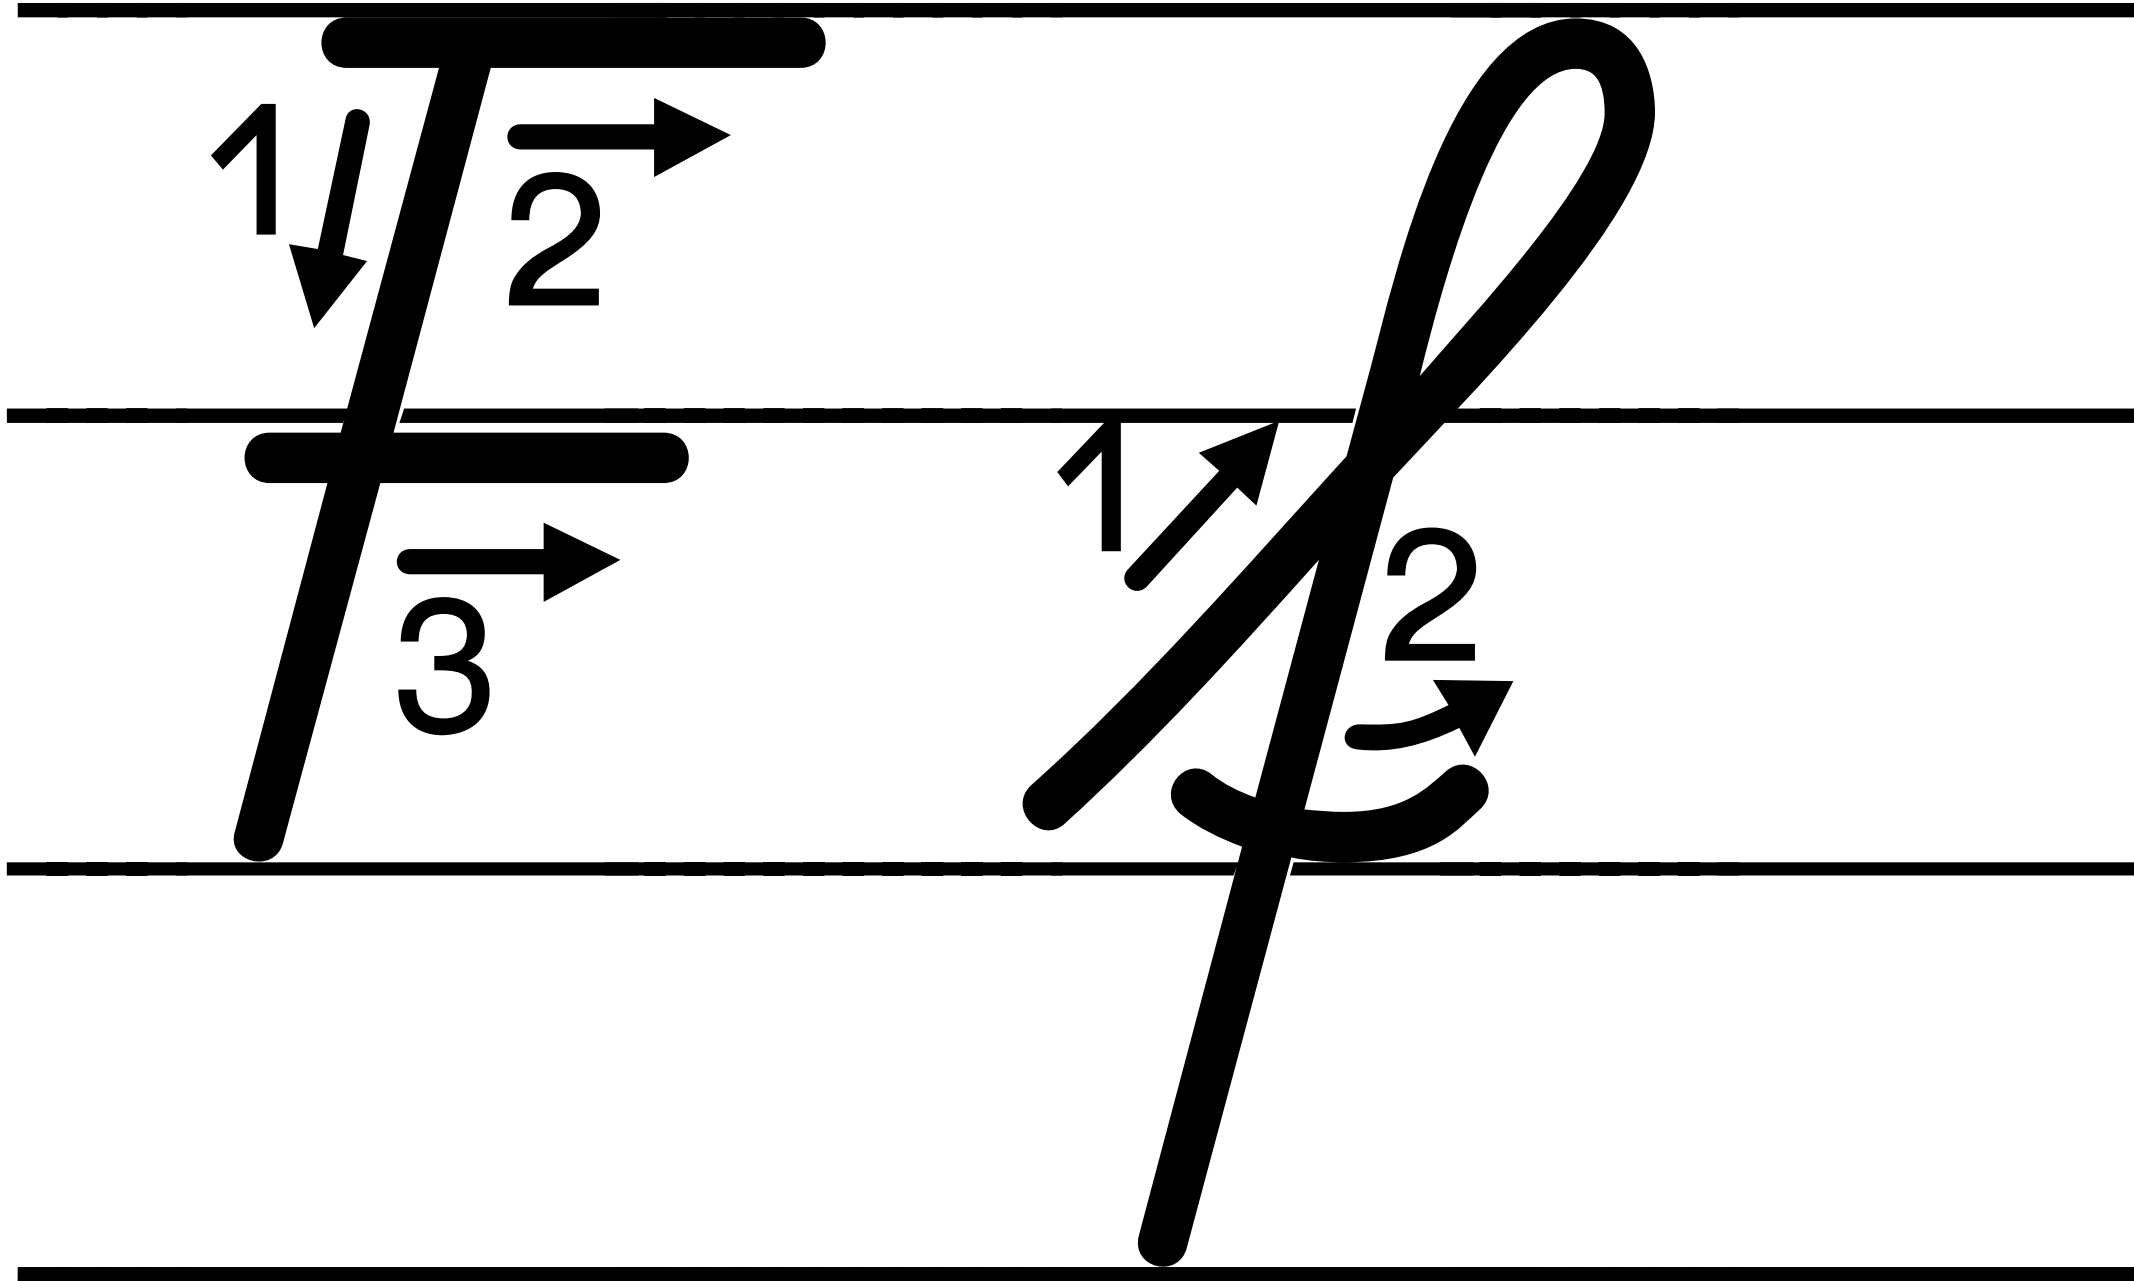

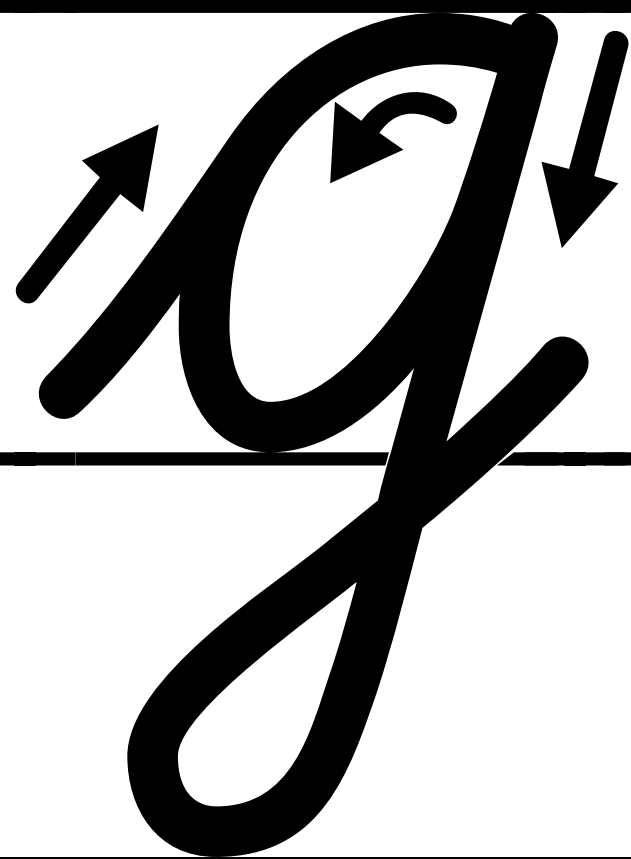

A large, black, cursive lowercase letter 'c' is shown on a set of four horizontal lines. The letter starts at the middle line, curves down to touch the bottom line, and then curves back up to the middle line. A small arrow is attached to the top curve, pointing to the left to indicate the direction of the stroke.

A handwriting practice diagram showing the letters A, L, and M on a four-line grid. The letters are presented in both uppercase and lowercase forms. Each letter includes small black arrows indicating the direction and sequence of strokes used to form them. The uppercase letters 'A' and 'L' are positioned between the top and middle lines. The lowercase letters 'a', 'l', and 'm' are positioned between the middle and bottom lines. The letters are drawn in a thick, black, cursive style.

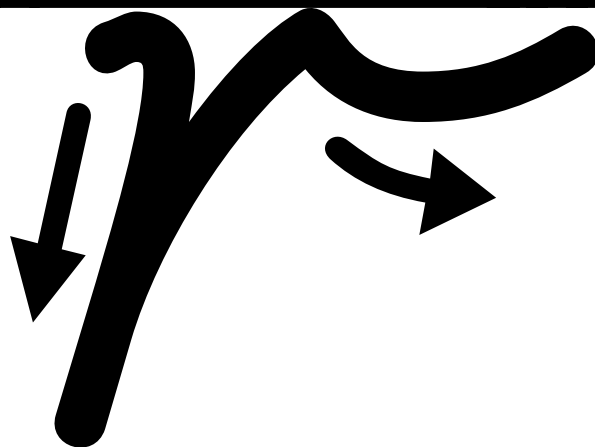

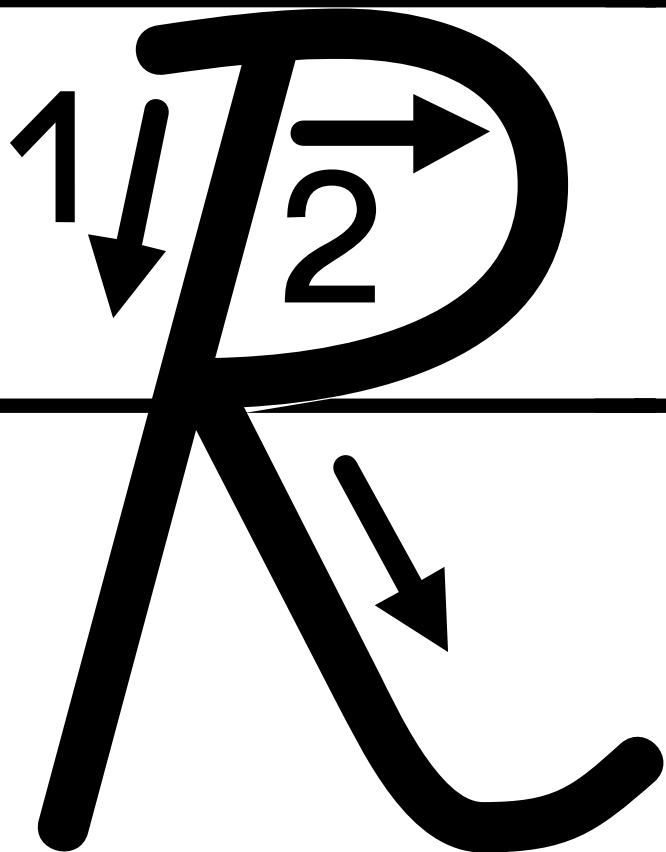

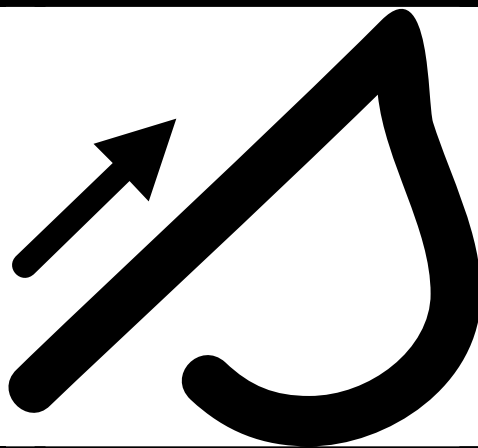

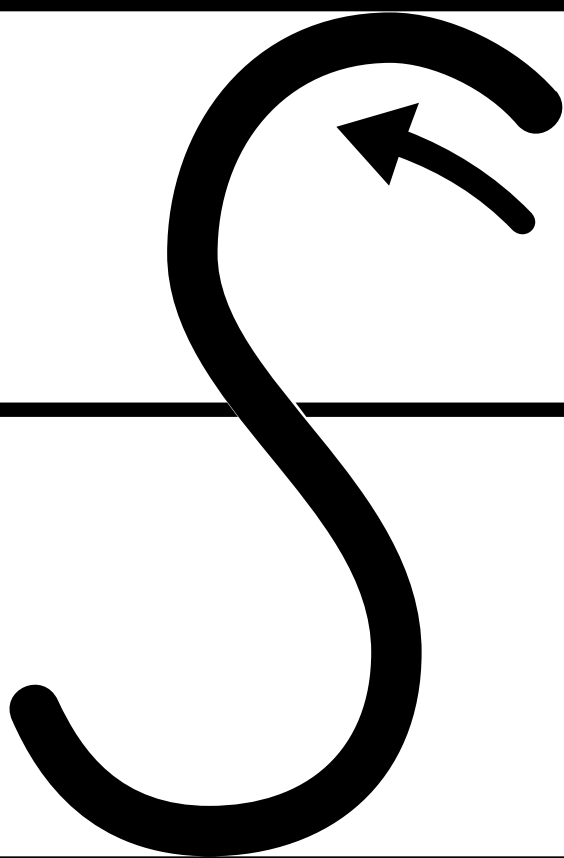

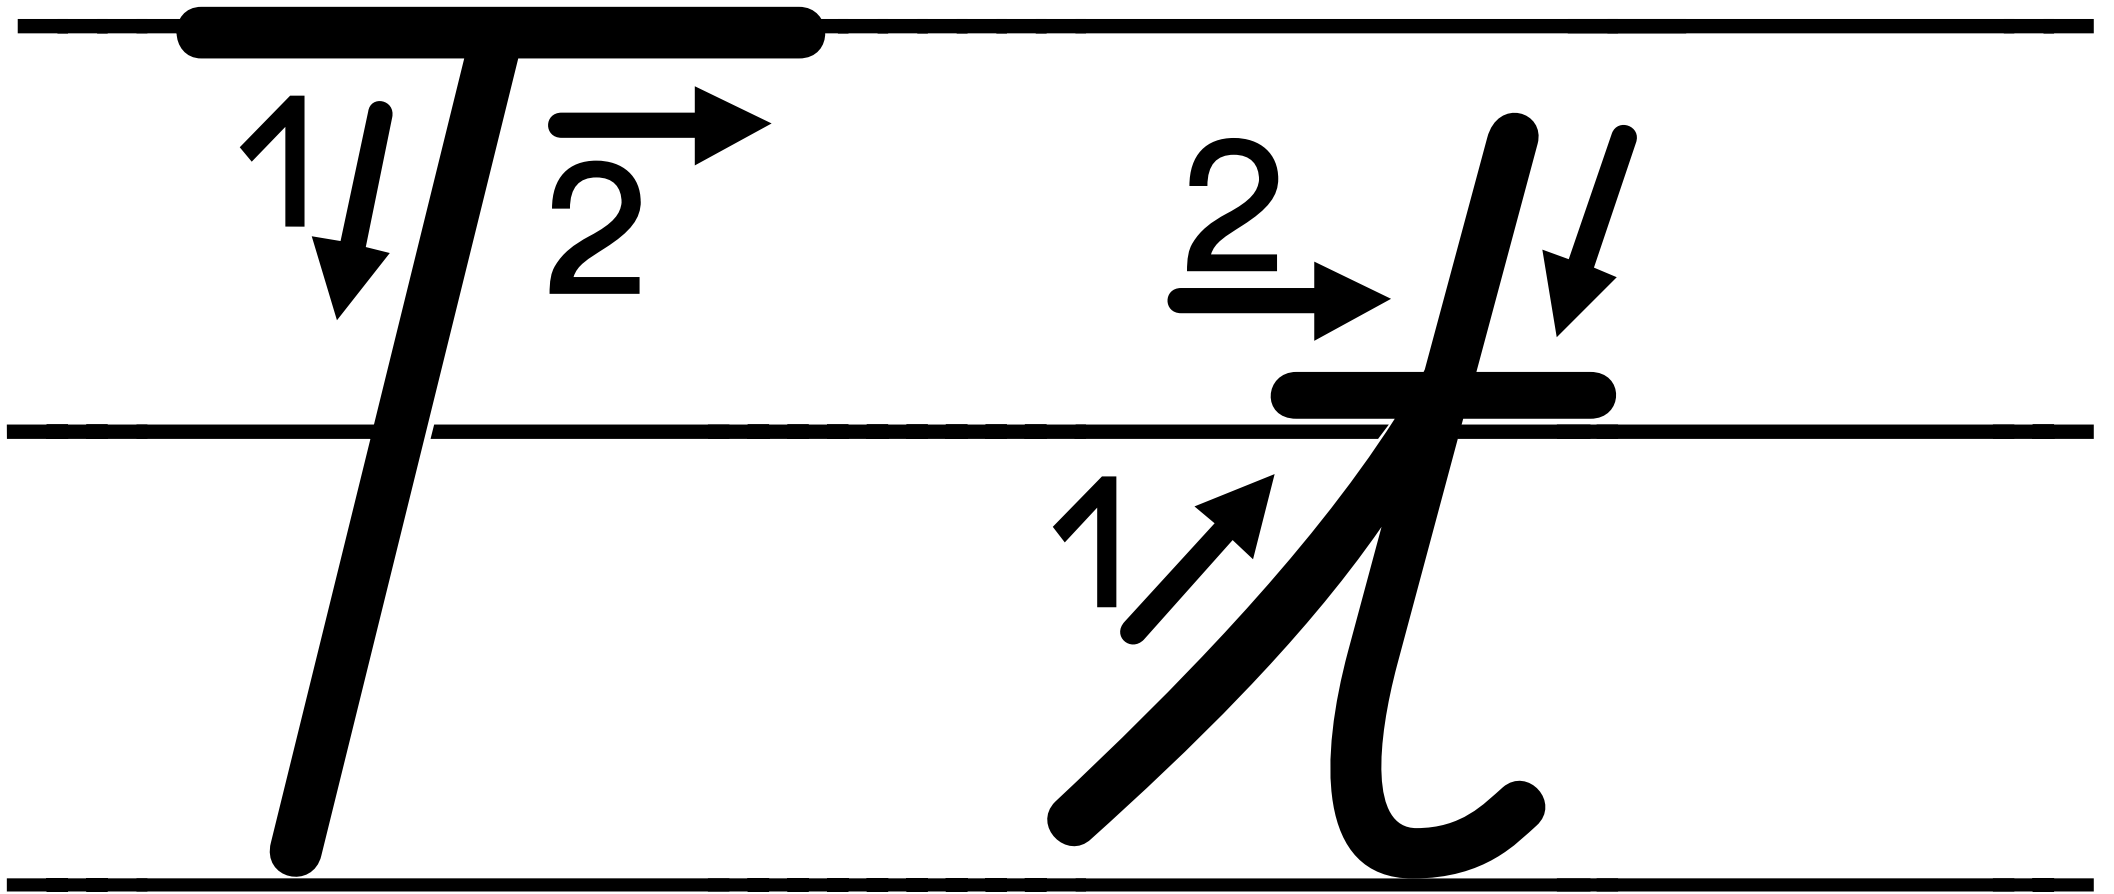

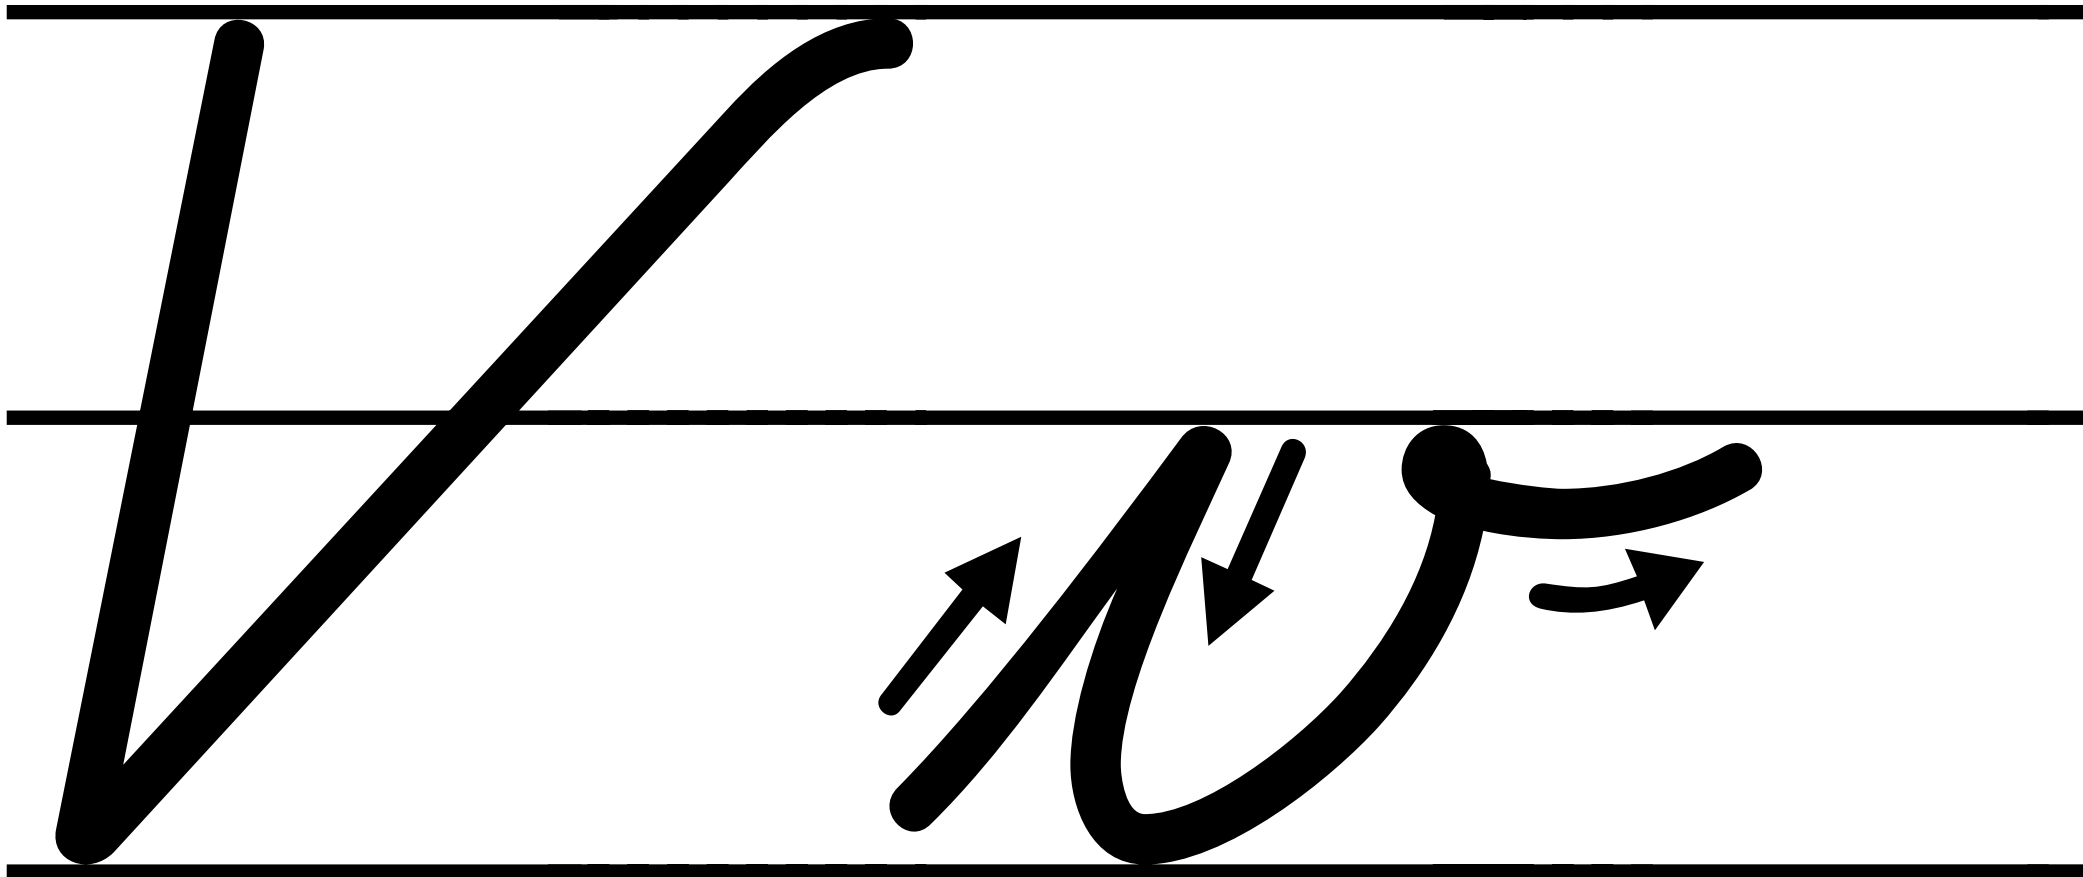

The image shows the lowercase cursive letters 'p' and 'u' written on a four-line grid. The letter 'p' starts with a diagonal stroke from the bottom-left to the top-right, indicated by an arrow. It then forms a counter-clockwise loop that crosses the top line and descends below the bottom line. The letter 'u' starts with a diagonal stroke from the top-left to the bottom-right, indicated by an arrow, which then curves back up to the top line and ends with a small hook. A second arrow points downwards from the top of the 'u' stroke.
